JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1869.

"INSURRECTION."

Gov. Holden in the most solemn manner declares four counties of the State, to wit: Orange, Chatham, Jones and Lenoir, in a state of insurrection. In his own words he says, "I regard it as my duty to announce that in four counties, to wit: Lenoir, Jones, Orange and Chatham, there is and has been, for some months past, a feeling of insubordination and insurrection, in as much that many good citizens are put in terror for their lives and property."

If we were called on to name the man most responsible for the disorders which have occurred in the four counties which are under the Governor's displeasure, we should name the Governor himself. When there was no insurrection, sedition or rebellion, the Governor organized secret, oath bound societies in these four counties, composed mostly of ignorant negroes and low base white men. The white men have, in a measure, ceased to rely upon their own exertions and cultivation of the soil for their maintenance and support. The blacks do half work, some of them no work at all.

The jails of these four counties have been crowded with the members of the Governor's secret societies, for larceny and other and higher offences.

The Governor, through the Leagues, demoralized the black man, "inducing him to believe that the government and the Leagues would support and educate him, and even give him "forty acres and a mule." The delusion was so complete that one freedman appeared in the streets of the city with a halter in quest of his promised mule.

Without a preliminary proclamation, the Governor sent his militia to Jones and Alamance counties, and for what? What did they accomplish? Nothing except murder; they murdered each other. We have the Governor's word for it, "that "secret political organizations are dangerous to Republican government and liberty," yet for three years he has been the President of one.—According to his own declaration he stands convicted of enmity to liberty and republican government.

What is insurrection that the Governor so glibly proclaims the people of four counties guilty of it?

Webster defines it to be a rising against the civil authority, a rising in mass to oppose an enemy. There has been no rising in mass for the one purpose, or the other.—The execution of the law has not been resisted, but the law has been grossly violated. The violation of the law began with the members of the Governor's Secret Society, it has been continued by the members of another Secret Society. If they could be caught, they could be punished, but "catching is beleis hanging." They swear to secrecy and that oath they keep, even more sacredly than the Governor and the Supreme Court kept their oath to support the Constitution and government of the United States. So closely do they keep their secrets, that it was not known until recently that the Governor was President of an association which he had long been loud in condemning.

The Governor has had detectives in these counties—paid spies upon the conduct of the people. One of them, a known thief, with a commission from the Governor stamped with the great red seal of State, was caught and whipped, illegally whipped, and who, pray, was the cause of it? None other than the Governor. If he had not organized the Leagues, and given a league man a commission as a spy upon the conduct of a people once free, and now sighing for the liberty they once enjoyed, this breach of the law had never occurred; Huskey would not have been whipped. In our humble judgment, neither spies, detectives or militia will quell the disorders and disturbances which daily occur in the whole south.

Nothing short of the dissolution of the secret political societies can restore order and give us quiet.

The President of the Leagues, hunting down with Militia and detectives, the members of another secret society, can beget nothing but additional murder, arson and violence.

When a guilty conscience points to an imaginary or real "hand-writing on the wall," its wretched possessor is apt to read more than written, and to see a gallows for himself in each sentence of justice. Or when prudence has become cowardice, it tells its tale of fear, either in an abject appeal for mercy to the object of its terror, or, if in its power—by an exercise of needless authority and severity. The latter seems to be the means likely to be adopted by our "cussing beloved" to satisfy those whom misfortune has compelled to take some interest in his actions, that, conscience-stricken and terrified, he sets in every punishment inflicted on those guilty of outrageous offences, a Nemesis, in the form of a so-called painted Ku Klux, ready to wreak a bloody vengeance on the great Head Centre of the Loyal Leagues in North Carolina.

If it were not that consequences may be too serious, we should feel irresistably disposed to enjoy a hearty laugh, both at our noble Governor's useless fright and at the remarkable nature of his proclamation—Chatham, Jones, Lenoir and Orange to be considered and proclaimed in a state of insurrection! Can it be that any one, who has been hoisted to the high position of Gov. of North Carolina by the intelligent and unbought votes of educated Loyal Leagues, is ignorant of the meaning of insurrection? Does he not know, that occasional or frequent acts of secret violence—whether perpetrated by the members of his Loyal Leagues, so nomine, or clothed with a commission of special detective or constable, or disguised in the ghostly apparel of a Ku Klux—can never, in any sense, be construed to effect an insurrection, so long as their very secrecy evinces the power of State and local laws to punish an open and known violation of their provisions?—The people of North Carolina have yet to learn that their laws can not be enforced in all, or any of the aforesaid counties; or that the officers of the law therein are unable to perform their duties and cannot bring malefactors to answer in any court, because of the open resistance of the citizens thereof; and to no part of the State, doubtless, would the knowledge of such a condition of affairs be greater news than to the people of Chatham, Jones, Lenoir, or Orange.

If the Governor's doughty militia are to be an additional burden upon our people, it would be more just and statesman-like in him to have another "special" tax levied for the purpose, and send them to the Penitentiary, than to give them license to raid upon the hen-roosts and smoke-houses of the quiet citizens of any specified counties upon the fabricated charge that they are in a state of "insurrection."

It might be well too for the Governor to consider the probabilities of the people of Chatham, Jones, Lenoir and Orange being unwilling to submit quietly to issuing rations in that way.

BULL ING THEM UP.—The following dispatch, sent by Governor Holden to New York, for the purpose, of course, of inspiring confidence in North Carolina bonds in that market, seems not to have been very successful in accomplishing the object, as the bonds, three days after the dispatch was sent, receded from the little advance they had gained, to a figure lower than ever:

"RALEIGH, N. C., October 27, 1869.

"To Henry Clews & Co., Bankers, N. Y.:

"The State will pay all her debts, principal and interest. The interest on the special tax bonds will be paid, no matter what happens, and do not see why the special tax should not go up to eighty or more.

W. W. HOLDEN,
"Governor of North Carolina."

This banking firm of Henry Clews & Co., has been made the financial Agent of the State for the sale of our special tax bonds, and we have been informed, on what we consider good authority, that an arrangement has been entered into with that firm by all the Railroad Companies of this State, holding special tax bonds, except the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road, that they are to have all they can get over 56 cents in the dollar, for selling the bonds. We do not think Clews & Co. will realize a fortune by the arrangement, but still we cannot endorse the action of any set of men who may assume to themselves the prerogative of placing this arbitrary estimate upon the credit of the State.

"How many times has the Sentinel vowed that when the "Democracy" obtained power not a Republican should hold office!"—Standard.

Nairy time! We'll fill a five gallon "castalian fount" for your especial benefit, if you will show one single declaration of the sort in the columns of the Sentinel, and give you the benefit of our files to hunt for it.

We may have intimated that all dishonest Republicans—all "Ringmen,"—all those engaged in a reckless fleecing of the people for their own aggrandizement, would have to go by the board, when the "Democracy" shall get into power; and it may be that the Standard includes the whole of the Republican party in the above category, and hence concludes that the Sentinel will not agree for a single Republican to hold office, when the Democracy gets into power. You are harder on your party, Mr. Standard, than the Sentinel is; for the Sentinel admits that there are many honest men in the Republican party; among which it has already mentioned the Penitentiary Board.

It is ungenerous in the Standard, and, we believe, unjust, too, to stigmatise its party in that way—to say that dishonest Republicans means all Republicans.

When the Standard twits us about Howe, the colored member of the Board, it ought to remember that we have never refused to eat dinner with him!

THE AGRICULTURAL BUREAU estimates that the cotton crop of the Southern States this year will be worth $340,000,000, while the total value of the exports of the South is set down at $328,500,000. The South is actually richer than ever before the war. There is not so much concentration of wealth among the few, but there is a general prosperity which is most gratifying, and which has made itself felt in the fall trade of the Northern markets very perceptibly. The west is purchasing no more than usual, and is beginning to manufacture in competition with us, so that the regenerated South is once more our best customer.—Exchange.

The Gaulois tells a little anecdote about Lafayette. At Lamarque's funeral the crowd took out the General's horses as he was returning home, and drew him to his hotel. "You must have been very pleased" remarked a friend some time afterwards. "Very much pleased, indeed," replied Lafayette; 'but I never saw anything more of my horses."

Among the solid men of Providence R. I., are Robert H. Ives, assessed for $1,195,800; George Hall, $175,000; Alexander Duncan, $1 224,200; A. E. Burnside and wife, $130,000; Byron Sprague's heirs, $177,600; Amos C. Barstow, $440,000; James G. Smith and wife, $130,000; Earl P. Mason, $548,000; and Senator Henry B. Anthony, $58,000.

A lucky clergyman in New York took a $5,000 wedding fee last week.

MISSED HIS CALLING.

Recent events clearly prove that the Governor missed his calling; he should have been a Commission Merchant. The sales he made of cotton, of 180,000 dollars of N. C. Rail Road Bonds, and the lease of the North Carolina Rail Road, all go to prove it.

When the Governor was Governor sure-enough, by appointment, and not by the suffrage of negroes, he made Dr. Sloan Treasurer; Sloan, honest man, was in trouble as to how he should raise money for the State, so it occurred to him to sell cotton which the State owned, at several cents in the pound less than was the market in New York. A member of the Convention bought the cotton, but did not pay for it until he had sold it again.

Governor worth hearing of this remarkable sale of cotton at less than market price, denounced it as dishonest. The purchaser being a member of the Convention, paid to Treasurer Sloan the difference between what he paid and the market value of the cotton, and there the matter rested. Governor Holden said not a word about this sale.

He now endorses the cotton-sale, by making Dr. Sloan President of the W. C. and R. Rail Road and Director in the North Carolina Road Company. Was the sale of the cotton an honest transaction? if so the Dr. was unfit for Treasurer; for he had only to look in the morning's paper for the price of cotton, and he could see that it was worth more than he sold it for.

If the sale was corrupt, then the Doctor deserves punishment. But the Governor can't escape so readily; he knew the Doctor to be corrupt or incompetent, and yet he makes him President of one road and Director of another. The last road, the Doctor has leased for two million less than others are willing to give for it, for twenty years.

This sale of the North Carolina Road for twenty years, throws the cotton transaction in the shade. The sale of the North Carolina eight per cent mortgage bonds at 65, which had sold at par, and which are at par to-day, and none in market even at that, is proof that the Governor missed his calling.

The Governor, like a mole, works in the dark. It was suspected for two years that he was in the League; after a while it leaked out that he was not only in it, but actually the grand President of all the Leagues in the State. Now he is suspected of belonging to the Ring. He is thus suspected,

I. Because of his intimacy with Littlefield and the carpet baggers, who have been and are swindling the State.

II. Because he makes Littlefield State Printer after he was presented by the Grand Jury of Wake for efforts to corrupt the Legislature with money and whiskey.

III. Because he gave his approval to the Penitentiary swindle.

IV. Because he approved of the sale of North Carolina Railroad bonds at 65.

V. He is suspected because of the appointment of Dr. Sloan to places of honor and trust after the cotton transaction.

VI. Because of the clandestine lease of the North Carolina Road for $2,000,000, less than others will give.

VII. Because of his visit to New York with Littlefield and the Ring.

VIII. He is suspected from the character of men whom he appoints to office; for instance, Billy Henderson, acquitted of mule stealing; Chicken Stephens, not acquitted of chicken stealing, Bill Huskey not acquitted of tobacco; Zach Groom, of Rockingham, who would fain "head a party to burn all the white houses South of Dan river."

IX. He is suspected upon general principles, his general political character and conduct being wholly irreconcilable with honesty, justice or truth. We tell the Governor his complicity with the Ring will soon be as apparent as his complicity with the Leagues.

REAL POWER.

Whatever may be the efforts to degrade the Southern people politically, and rob them of the privileges which all free men in a free country should enjoy without effort, their progress to genuine power and influence can only be temporarily retarded. They are already on the high road to material wealth, and the independence of thought and action that full pockets, and immense facilities for improvement in traffic and inter communication give, will eventually enable them to over ride all extraneous disabilities. They are building railroads and cotton factories in unexampled plenty. Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Arkansas, and Texas, are deeply engaged in the business of planning and constructing railroads. The chief object of building these roads, is to secure cheap and easy outlets for cotton and other crops to points which it is now almost impossible to reach with produce or manufactures, without sustaining an expenditure of money and time that the returns would in no wise warrant. As to the creation of factories, we have it on good authority that there is scarcely a single thriving town of 3,000 inhabitants, in Alabama and Mississippi, that is not preparing to erect a mill for making coarse cotton or woolen goods. These factories are also being projected in other Southern States, and from such factories it will be an easy step to many other institutions for the practical development of miscellaneous industries of an important character. All these enterprises—these grand schemes for vast internal improvements, and these needed industrial undertakings—are in good hands. Nearly all the Ex-Confederate officers of note have turned their attention to them. With these gentlemen politics has become a secondary matter. They have discovered that wealth is the true source of power, and that in her purse lies the real influence of the South. Two cotton crops of immense value are furnishing the capital with which the Southern people are making their new experiments; and, we are glad to say, such capital as is required from the North is being furnished without hesitation; for our capitalists are not blind to the future brilliant prospects of the States which bogus religion and crazy philanthropy would destroy for the sake of making an idol of the vicious negro. The Richmond Whig predicts that in five years there will hardly be a productive region in the South not supplied with a railroad, and we have every reason to believe this prediction will be verified.

An Ohio woman has become a widow by making her biscuits with arsenic instead of saleratus.

JUDICIAL WIT AND REPARTEE.

MR. EDITOR:—I know the interest which you and your readers feel in all that pertains to the Bench and the Bar. I, therefore, take the liberty of sending you a short account of an application for licence to practice law, which occurred under the new code and the new judiciary. I will use fictitious names, but that will be the only fiction in the narative, for it really occured as I shall give it.

The Judge whom you call "able bodied," was presiding, two young men, in open Court, applied for licence—one of them he knew had no sense, and the other he knew to have neither sense nor character. You may not believe it, but the "able bodied" made an effort to protect and maintain the purity of the profession. When the Counsel of the applicants had made the usual motion, his Honor casting his eyes over the Court room, they lit upon Mr. W——, a gentleman of known firmness and integrity.

"Mr. W.," said his Honor, "will you come to the witness stand."

Mr. W. took his position, when the Judge asked if he knew the character and standing of the two young men before the Court.

Witness—"I know nothing against Rodney's character;" here the witness paused long enough for the Judge to grow impatient, and he put in, "what about the character of Brindle?"

Witness—"Up to a certain time there was nothing against Brindle's character, but since his scrape with Storrs, his character has been doubtful."

Judge—"You think Brindle's character is doubtful—is not good—you can stand aside sir."

The Counsel, seeing the temper of the Judge called in a number of witnesses who swore to Brindle's good character.

The Judge granted the license, but evidently with reluctance.

At the supper table that evening, the Judge said to a friend sitting next him:—"Manly, what the devil do Brindle and Rodney want with license to practice law? They have no sense and one of them no character, and d—d them, they will only bring disgrace upon the profession."

Manly—"I think, Judge, they do not expect to make lawyers or to practice much, though they are hopeful of accomplishing their object."

Judge—"Their object! what the devil is their object?"

Manly—"I understand they only desire to put themselves in the line of promotion for Judgeships."

Judge—"Well, I'll be d—d."

Two weeks after the supper scene, in another county and at another Court, the Judge, who has much suspicion in his composition approached Manly in a semi-confidential manner, and said, "Manly, did'nt them d—d lawyers B. and C., put that into your head?"

Manly—"Put what into my head?"

Judge—"The idea of Brindle and Rodney seeking Judicial honors?"

Manly exploded with hoarse laughter and the curtain fell.

Can't you, Mr. Editor, find out when and where and how Chicken Stephens was admitted to the Bar? who proved his character and all about it? The admission of such a member should be recorded, as you have recorded the admission of Rodney and Brindle.

Yours &c.
MEMBER OF THE BAR.

MISREPRESENTATIONS OF THE HENDERSON FAIR BY THE CORRESPONDENT OF THE FAYETTEVILLE "EAGLE."

HENDERSON, N. C., Oct. 26, 1869.

Editor of the Sentinel:—I write this letter at the request of many friends of the Central Agricultural Society, to correct certain misstatements and misrepresentations of a correspondent of the Fayetteville Eagle. The communication came under my notice yesterday, and I hasten this correction to prevent any possible harm, that might occur from it. There was really no matter in the correspondence worthy of a notice, it was throughout tissue of falsehoods loosely strung together, and evidently the emanation of a mind narrow and shallow, of a heart devoid of even the common principles of charity. The writer is suspected to be a certain literary individual, a native of Granville county, who is now employed in travelling for a noted insurance company; so much the worse, so much the more shame, if the suspicion, as I believe, is well founded. The letter dated, Oct. 18, purports to give an account of the recent Fair held in this place, and of which you with other gentlemen of the quill have spoken in the highest terms of praise. This travelling Solomon thinks that "as a whole, it may be regarded as a failure." The Chairman of the Executive Committee, Dr. W. W. Young, says that the receipts were larger this year by $40 than ever before. The Secretary, G. Badger Harris, Esq., informs me that one hundred more articles were entered on the Secretary's books at the last Exhibition, than last year. The lists of entries back to the very first Fair, ever held in this place show there never has been as large and as creditable an exhibition of horses as that of 1869. Does this look like a failure? Bah! The only failure on the grounds was "Tuscarora," the empty splenetic correspondent of the "Eagle," and he was a most egregious failure. He condescends to notice specially only two articles on exhibition, one of which was not entered for a premium, the other did not take it. He says mendaciously: "There was a vast deal of drunkenness"—and adds in the same sentence—"and a large number of well dressed ladies, some of whom were handsome."—Now it was a matter of common remark, that there was less dinking going on than at any previous Fair. This correspondent tries to show that the racing usurped most of the time in the programme. This, as every body who was here knows, is literally and palpable a gross misrepresentation. This man of the quill must either have imbibed too freely of Clarke's liquor or his optics must have been really in need of a pair of Bernhardt's or Davis' Brazilian pebble glasses. So many very gross misstatement does he set forth in his letter. His manner, too, is spiteful, as if he had been mistreated whilst among us. Who did him a discourtesy? let him declare it there was such a one. His remarks upon Gen. Ransom's brilliant address, which he confesses he only heard in small part, are deprecatory, in their half praise, and shows him to be either incompetent as a critic or bigoted in his political views. The General will sustain no great part I trow from the rabid dicta of this anonymous scribbler. He winds up a column of twaddle by saying that he would have been more particular in giving the details, but really the game was not "worth the candle." He has killed our annual Fair, what will be do next?

GRANVILLE.

HARD TIMES OUT WEST.—The Chicago Tribune says the financial prospect is not a satisfactory one. Throughout the northwest the general prosperity depends so largely upon the grain crop that the present low prices make everybody feel poor, and have a depressing effect upon all branches of business. It is probable that this fall's business will be done for very small profits, and in many instances no profits at all.

New Ads.—Call and see the nice cooking stoves that drew the premiums at the Fair, at T. H. Briggs's.

There is something new at Fentress's corner.

Land for sale at auction by W. H. Jones & Co.

See the announcement of Wells's Journal with the half dozen hard names.

Read the new announcement of Douglas Bell, so as to find out where to get prime family groceries.

If you wish to enjoy a plate of delicious oysters, fixed up in the best style, call on Moseley, at Fentress' old stand.

His stalls and tables are nicely arranged, with a view to the accommodation of ladies, and they need not fear of having their eyes or ears offended while taking a plate of oysters there, for he will have everything conducted orderly.

Is That So?—A little bird has whispered to us that the Stockholders' meeting appointed for the 11th inst, in this city, to consider the subject of the lease of the N. C. Railroad, will probably be countermanded.

Troops Arrived.—We noticed the arrival of Federal troops which we learn are a part of the 8th Infantry, passing through the city to the barracks yesterday. They are from Goldsborough.

We learn a company of this regiment is to be sent to Chapel Hill, to aid the Governor and his State Militia to keep down the Ku Klux.

Masonic.—There will be a Lodge of Instruction held at Masonic Hall this, Tuesday; evening, at 7 o'clock. The masons in good standing are invited to attend.

Mysterious.—A youth of this city, while rambling in the woods, near Walnut creek, some three miles from Raleigh, recently, found a blanket, oil cloth, soldier's cap, cartridge box filled with cartidges, and an army rifle, all lying together, but all in a rotten condition. The rifle stock was so decayed that it fell to pieces on being taken up. The other articles, also were too rotten to be handled. There were no signs of human bones any where around, so the conclusion is, they were left there for some reason, by a Federal soldier, while the army was encamped in the neighborhood, in 1865, and never recovered by him.

Robbers Abroad.—We learn that Mr. W. H. Ferrell, an employee, in the Standard Office, was knocked down and robbed of his watch &c., on Fayetteville street, last Saturday night. He do s not know who struck him, as he received the stroke before he saw the assailant.

Printing Ink.—We add our testimony to that of a great many others, in favor of the excellent printing ink offered for sale by Mr. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington. He sent us a sample and on using it we find it equal, if not superior, to most of the inks we have been using. When we exhaust our present supply, we shall order from him instead of sending north.

Orange at the Fair.—A friend in Orange suggests that the list of premiums awarded at the late State Fair, as published by us, was imperfect, and did not give his county as fair a showing as it was entitled to. We are aware that the list, as published, was imperfect, but it was the best we could get at the time. We have now, a perfect report, which we will publish soon, if we can. In the meantime we give the following list of premiums awarded exhibitors from Orange.

To Gray Utley, Hillsborough, for best Cotton Press,	20.00
To the same, for Hay and Straw Cutter,	5.00
To E. H. Pogue, Hillsboro', for best lot of Tin Ware,	5.00
To W. G. Norwood, of Hillsboro', for best lot of leather, sole, kip, calf, side, harness, dressed buck, goat, &c.,	13 00
To J. A. McMannen, Durhams, for atmospheric flour cooler,	5.00
To J. C. McCowan & Co. Durhams for best monkey wrench	3.00
To the same for best screw plate	3.00
To Dr. Hicks, Durhams, for straw cutter	Diploma
To Dr. E. McCrory, Hillsboro, best brood mare over 4 years old	15:00
To Henry Crabtree, Hillsboro' for best saddle mare over 4 years old	10 00

We might add to the above that the good old county was also represented by some of the cleverest fellows and handsomest ladies, and we should do her no more than justice.

Gleanings from State Exchanges.—The co-operation store enterprise is gaining favor in Wilmington.

Dupong, accused of stealing stores from the Cuba, has not given bond, yet, and remains in durance vile. The papers doesn't state who performs his official duties in the meantime.

A white infant was found dead, covered up in dirt and old rags, under the Railroad shed at Wilmington on Saturday last.—"Came to its death by neglect and suffocation, supposed to be the act of the mother," said the Coroner's Jury.

George Z. vehemently denies that he recommended the stealing timber inspector, at Wilmington, Dupong, to the position he holds.

Durham Tobacco.—It may not be generally known that "Durham Smoking tobacco," is a generic and not a specific term; that is, that there are three distinct brands of Durham Smoking tobacco, namely, the "Lyon," the "Green's" and the "Morris' Gold leaf," the all "Durham." We have no hesitation in saying that, to our taste, the Durham smoking tobacco is the best we ever puffed, but, to this day, we have been unable to decide which particular brand is better than the other two. Sometimes we think it is Lyon's, then we are inclined to Green's and by-and-by, we are sure it is Morris'; generally according to what kind we are puffing at the time.

We have now before us a sample of each brand, from the Confectionery and Fruit store of Messrs A. D. Royster & Bro., who keep all three kinds, and would keep a dozen more if there were that many; which we shall take through a critical analysis, and determine, if possible, as to the best; but where merit is so nicely balanced, we are not sure but it will take a great many experiments in our clay crucible, and the consumption of a considerable quantity of each kind, before we shall be able to arrive at a correct conclusion.

If any one desires to engage in similar chemical analyses of the weed, they can find plenty of samples at the above establishment.

Fatal Accident.—We learn from a gentleman who was passenger on the Petersburg train, which arrived at Weldon on Saturday last, that a Mr. Tilghman, connected with one of the Weldon Hotels, in attempting to jump on the train, while crossing the bridge, missed his footing and fell under the train. Both legs were crushed, one of them being entirely cut off, from which he died the same night.

Death of Judge Person.—The death of this distinguished gentleman has cast a gloom over this community the like of which it has seldom experienced before, and has drawn forth expressions of sorrow and regret from all classes of our citizens. His amiable character, high social qualities, dignified though unostentatious bearing and quiet, unobtrusive manners, had made him universally respected and beloved, while his superior legal attainments had given him a reputation among the members of his profession which few attain. Only a few short days ago we saw him in his seat in the court room, acting as one of the counsel for the prosecution in the Cuba case, and at the time apparently the perfect embodiment of health. Now he has gone from among us—has plead his last cause before an earthly tribunal and now awaits a decision, in his case, of the great Judge of all the earth.

Adjournment of Court.

As a slight token of respect to the memory of Judge Person, the Superior Court, which was in session yesterday, adjourned at 12 o'clock, M., for the remainder of the term. The announcement of his death to His Honor, Judge Russell, and the members of the Bar, among whom he was best known and appreciated, was made by Mr. A. Empie, in the following words:

May it please the Court:—The members of the Bar have selected me to announce to the Court the death of our beloved brother and friend, Samuel J. Person. This is not the time or the occasion to eulogize, or to even speak of the distinguished services of deceased. All we can now do is to pay a passing tribute to his memory, and to ask your Honor to adjourn this Court for the remainder of this term, in order to—

Here the speaker became so overpowered by his emotions that he was compelled to take his seat—a touching evidence of the appreciation in which deceased was held by his brother members of the Bar.

Judge Russell then said:

At a slight tribute of respect to the memory of departed worth, this Court stands adjourned.

The Funeral.

The funeral took place on Sunday at 4 o'clock, from the residence of the late P. K. Dickinson, thence to St. John's Church and thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

Negro Absurdities.

The true philanthropist and christian can be but deeply pained when he reads of such follies and superstitions as I will mention. What I write can be relied upon, for I derive the facts from persons of the highest character socially and religiously.

For some time there has been very great religious excitement (so-called) among the negroes living in the Northern portion of Halifax, in that part adjoining Warren.—Certain negro men claiming to be preachers conduct the exercises. In front of the stand occupied by them a platform is erected. After preaching the best bouncers are called for, whereupon the most agile young women mount the planks and commence jumping violently up and down, while the older women surround them and jump up and down upon the ground, but in a more moderate way. A sort of low singing or droning may be constantly heard. These exertions are long continued. When they begin to be brought under the so called religious influence they fall down as if dead. As fast as each falls, she is taken out and laid strait out upon the ground. Sometimes as many as twenty will be stretched along in a line, each apparently insensible. They lay for hours in this seeming trance. When they are restored to consciousness, they relate marvelous stories about having been to heaven or hell, or both. They are then deemed fit subjects for baptism. I understand many hundreds have been dipped, the negroes always preferring that mode. After being dipped they are regarded as fit subjects for heaven.

A negro woman, living with the gentleman at whose house I am now writing, who has passed through this scene of gross superstition says, that whilst she was in trance, our Saviour came to her and cut open her side with a sword, and taking out her heart, it turned at once to gold. A preacher boy says he has been to th to hell and heaven—but he has recently returned from the latter—that whilst there he was fed upon light-bread and honey—that he got tired of saying there and came back because he wanted to see "his folks" below.—Traveling Cor. of the Fayetteville Eagle.

The strike of the Franklin line of telegraph operators at New York has terminated in an advance of wages and the reinstatement of all who went out.

George I. Brooks, nominated for Congress in M. Boutwell's district, is a relative of Attorney General Hoar.

Josh Billings gets $50 per week for spelling like a idiot, and otherwise being semi humorous.

Deplorable accounts are received of the condition of the section of country bordering on the Colorado river, Texas. The army worm, following in the wake of the great fallet, has ravaged the cotton crop until many of the planters are merely picking to save the seed for next year.

DIED:

In this City on Monday, November 1st, Charles Edgar, infant son of Wm. J., and Julia L. Hicks.

The funeral will take place from the residence of the parents, this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

In the case of S. B. SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF

TEXT-BOOKS

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 23, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of Mr. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug 9th, 1869, by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
SWINTON'S SERIES OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October next. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public Schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the State.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. Wm. B. Harrell, Prin. High School Snow Hill, N. C.:

SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the Speakers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. Albert Smedes, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable.
ALBERT SMEDES.

From J. W. Gulick, A. M., Prin Male Academy, Guilford, N. C.:

GUILFORD, N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Gamut in particular.
J. W. GULICK.

From Col. Wm. Bingham, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. Cross, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:

DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session Mc-Nally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition.
M. CROSS.

From M. L. Little, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.

NEWTON N. C.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work
M. L. LITTLE,
Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. Ivey, Prin Auburn Academy, N. C.:

AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCKON IVEY.

Prof. Wm. A. Obenchain, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation,—one with which I have long been forcibly impressed.

From J. E. Pinson, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.

WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Gamut's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation.
J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. Kerr, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. Bernheim, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies; and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Gamut, with much acceptance.
G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. Jos. H. Fry, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture-room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit.
J. H. FOY.

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1868.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller, The National First and 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the states.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1868.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1868.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1868.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the cause is so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale in the day of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the brass, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

"	22,304	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Diseases are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been Almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 500 policies, representing an amount of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed assets—so running up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,327 new policies more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
